For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Merry Christmas!

This is the season for opportunities to believe!

As we spend this time of year running around like little chickens with our heads cut off, it might be a great time to stop; be still; and learn to listen to the still small voice ever calling us to His feet to worship Him. As I meditate daily on His word several things come to my mind. When the kings came to the baby Jesus and presented Him with their gifts, each gift had a significant meaning which helped define His role, His life, and His destiny for all people. Gold represented that He is King. Frankincense represented that He is Priest. Myrrh represented that He is Healer. These representations of His divine nature given to us must be understood and tapped into to make it ultimately beneficial throughout this season of family, friends, food, and fellowship.

All our relationships are unimportant on this earth if the ultimate GOD-man relationship is not in its best perfect position. Take the time to develop your worship time daily with your personal King, Priest, and Healer. Take the time to get down on your knees simply to worship Him, not to ask for anything, or make any requests from Him, but to give Him worship. It's Jesus' birthday celebration! He should be receiving the gifts....our worship, and praise is the best gifts we have to give Him! Stop right now, get on your knees, lift your hands and simply worship Him. Don't ask for anything, just worship Him! He already knows what you need anyway! He foreknows all, including you, and including your needs!

Let's spend this season looking for opportunities to believe instead of "I can't believe this has happened to me!" Just say, "I believe that this situation is an opportunity to believe!" Rehearse the good things, rehearse the better things, and do your best during this season to have more patience, more tolerance, and more grace for others around you, from family, friends, co-workers, and even other drivers in the parking lots of the stores!

We are walking talking infomercials for Jesus Christ! People are watching you to see HIM! Give Him the best gift this Christmas, your love, your praise and your worship! Happy Birthday Jesus Christ, Messiah, King, Priest and Healer!

We love you and Merry Christmas...

From our house to yours!
